The Charleston News.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1871.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Gold at New York yesterday closed at 121 -The New York cotton market closed firm;

splands 18fc.; sales 3157 bales. -At Liverpool cotton closed active and firmer; uplands 91; shipping at Charleston or

Savannah 94d. -The latest euphulsm for red hair is Canandalgua color; Canandalgua being, as every New York railroad traveller knows, a little beyoud Auburn. -Rev. S. S. Harris, of the Episcopal Church in Columbus, Ga., has accepted a call to the rectorship of Trinity Church, New Orleans, at a salary of five thousand dollars.

-The Chicago lawyers, who lost some $400,-000 worth of law books in the fire, now ask a liberal donation of books for the library of their Law Institute, which they promise to make free to the bar generally.

-Fanny Ellsler, (the genuine one,) whose dancing delighted our fathers and grandfathens, is now living quietly at the Hague. She is sixty-one years old, and is noted for her deeds of charity.

-Additional returns received from the late legislative elections in West Virginia confirms the year following; the taxes for 1870, for the first reports of an unqualified Democratic and Conservative success. The additional counties heard from are Kanawha, Mineral, Berkeley, Marion, Harrison, Ritchie, Lewis, Wood, Brooke, Marshall and Wetzel, all of which return Democratic majorities.

-The first of the trials of the polygamists before the United States Cour. at Sait Lake has ended in conviction. The accused, Thomas Hawkins, is one of the leading lights in the Mormon Church, and the principal witness against him was his first wife, whose trials under the yoke of her Turk of a husband seem to have been peculiarly severe. The sentence imposed is a fine of five hundred dollars, and imprisonment for three years. Thus the crisis in Mormonism has been reached.

-The New York Tribune appeals to the generous in behalf of the sufferers in Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota. Probably fifty thousand persons in Northern Wisconsin and Michigan have been stripped of every possession, and many have been rendered sick, blind or orippled by the ordeal, which will necessa rily make them objects of charity for some time to come. Unfortunately, too, where whole families and whole communities were involved in the common rule, there are no neighbors nor relatives on whom, as in Chicago, some of the suffering can fall back for as-

-Mr. A. T. Stewart, since 1862, has given away in public charity about $200,000. In 1862-'3 he sent $10,000 to the distressed cotton-spinners of Lancashire; soon afterwards a ship laden with provisions to Ireland; upon the breaking out of the civil war he gave $30,-000 for the defence of the Union; and $10,000 to the famishing people of Southeastern Prussia just before the war, and afterwards gave the Germans $50,000 worth of provisions, followed by another gift to Prussia of 100,000 francs, and allke amount to France. After the late fire in Chicago, as is well known, he contributed $50,000 for the relief of the suf-

-In New York City Charles O'Conor, the distinguished Democratic lawyer, has been compelled to decline the nomination of the reform Democrats for member of the New York Assembly from the nineteenth District. His time is more than occupied in the investigation of the frauds and in stirring up Tweed, for which he was delegated by the attorneygeneral. At his suggestion, however, the Hon. Horatlo Seymour was on Saturday nominated for the position, and it is understood will accept. The opposing Democratic candidate is Tom Field, the district giving 2500 majority. Mr. Soymour does not reside in New York City, but Oneida County, and it is a novel thing in New York State politics to elect a candidate for the Legislature residing in another county. A Republican journal says all parties should unite on Mr. Sermour, as it would be an honor to New York to elect such a man. -A correspondent of the London Telegraph draws a lively picture of the social condition o Paris at the present moment. by which it seems that it is not only the eaternal appearance of the city that is being so rapidly rejuvenated, but the people also are already suming the "ante-bellum" gayety and joviality. Day by day the number of persons who usually live there, and nearly as many more who come from afar off, are flocking to town of men or intelligence and position, Countdand settling themselves down as of old; taking to all their former occupations; doing business and killing time in that wonderful manner for which Parisians have been celebrated time out of mind. According to the correspondent, Paris was never I more flourishing than now, and the tradesmen are literally "full of bushness." The workmen-masons, carpenters, smiths, tinmen, glaziers, painters, printers, tailors, shoemakers and the rest-were never so well off before. What between some 10,000 of their fellow craftsmen killed at the taking of Paris, 20,000 who are still prisoners, and 40,000 German workmen who left Paris at the commencement of the war and have not yet returned, there are now at least 70,000 fewer pairs of hands in the city than there were last year. The consequence is that workmen now get whatever wages they choose to ask. Rents have not risen much, and although the price of provisions is high, more meat and vegetables are consumed than formerly. As a corollary, the populace la contented and orderly. and the police say that beyond a rare wineshop dispute, or the distraction of having occasionally to hunt up a Communist, they have -The following was the sentence passed on Saturday upon Hawkins, the polygamist, by Chief Justice McKean, in Sait Lake City: "Thomas Hawkins, I am sorry for you, very sorry; you may not think so now, but I shail try to make you think so by the mercy which I shall show you. You came from England to this country with the wife of your youth; for many years you were a kind husband and a kind father. At length, however, the evil spirit of polygamy tempted and possessed you. Then happiness departed from your household, and now, by the complaint of your faithful wife and the verdict of a law-abiding lemor "requested them to report to the Con-

jury, you stand at the bar as a convicted criminal. The law gives me a large discretionary power in passing sentence upon you. I might both fine and imprison you, or I might imprison you twenty years and fine you $10,000. I cannot imprison you for less than three years, nor fine you less than $300. It is right that you should be fined, among other reasons to help to defray the expense of enforcing the laws; but my experience in Utah has been such, that were I to fine you only, I am satisfied the fine would be paid out of other funds than yours; and you would go free, absolutely free from all punishment, and then those men who mislead the people would make thousands of others be lieve that God had sent the money to pay the fine; that God had prevented the court-room from sending you to prison; that by a miracle you had been rescued from the authorities of the United States. I must look to it that my judgment gives no aid or comfort to such men; I must look to it that my judgment be not so severe as to seem vindictive, and not so light as to seem to trifle with justice. I will say here and now that, whenever your good behavior and the public good shall justify me in doing so, I will gladly recommend that you be pardoned. The judgment of the court is, that you be fined $500, and that you be imprisoned at hard labor for the term of three years." Contrary to all expectations, there was little or no excitement in the court-room. The attendance was large, but generally all maintained a proper decorum. Notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court was given by the prisoner's counsel.

The Municipal Change.

The installation of the Mayor and Aldermen elect will take place at the City Hall, at 12 o'clock to-day, and the Executive Committee of the Citizens' Party request that there be no public demonstration on that occasion. It is desired that the installation be a purely formal affair, and that all show of exultation be avoided.

Let the Governor Speak.

It has always been the practice in this State to pay the taxes for a given year in example, being payable in 1871. At the last session of the General Assembly, however, the period of collection was changed so as to make the taxes of both 1870 and 1871 mayable during the present year. The effect of such a change could not fail to be disastrous in the extreme. For the year 1870 the State tax, due and payable last spring, was nine mills on the dollar. For the year 1871 the State tax, due and payable, under the new plan, this present month, is seven mills on the dollar. The tax of nine mills (1870) amounts to $1,647,000, and the tax of seven mills (1871) to $1,281,000, making a total tax, to be paid in the year of $2,928,000; an amount more than seven times as great as the State tax before the war, But, in addition to the State tax, there is the county tax, which is payable at the same time. The county taxation for 1870 amounts to $618,047, and for 1871 to $549, 000. Adding the several taxes we find that the people were called upon to pay, this year, the following amounts:

State tax, 1870.....$1,647,000 County tax, 1870, ..... 618,047 County tax, 1871..... 549,060

And even this amount is exclusive of the poll-tax of one dollar, which adds $300,000 to the general estimate. It must be remembered, besides, that all real and personal property in South Carolina is taxed at least its full market value, and that the taxable property of the State is largely reduced in amount by the consequences of the war. In other words, while the value of the property of the people of the State has sunk from $489,000,000, in 1860, to $183,000,000, in one year is increased from $400,000 to $4, 250,000.

The publication of this unvarnished straement in THE News, last March, gave rise to a discussion in which nearly every journal in this State took part. The general decision was that the payment of four million dollars in taxes, in one year, would reduce to beggary an already impoverished people. The circumstance that the taxpayers, being nearly exclusively whites, were without representation in the Legislature whose members squandered the public moneys, and imposed taxes to defray their own extravagant appropriations, added fuel to the flame, and in a very short time the white people of the State were prepared to offer a united moral resistance to the collection of a tax so heavy as to be tantamount, in many cases, to confiscation. The proposed double-tax of four million dollars, together with the large increase in the State debt, led to the holding of public meetings in Charleston, which meetings resulted in the assembling of the Tarpayers' Convention last May. This body, compose ered the question maturely, and appointed a special committee to confer with the Governor of the State in relation to the postponement of the collection of the tax for 1871, made due in November, 1871, but which, under the old law, would have been collectable io March, 1872. The committee submitted the following report, which was adopted:

That impressed with the conviction (under That impressed with the conviction (under the peculiar circumstances of the case, and in view of the fact that the people of the State are thus called upon to pay the taxes for two separate years in one.) of the justice of the measure of relief proposed, they have had an interview with the Governor, who has authorized them to state to the Convention, that while the various offices will be open in November for the reception of the taxes at that time, from such of the clitzens as may be then prepaged to pay them, yet that the period for prepared to pay them, yet that the period for heir payment will be extended to the 1st of March, 1782, within which time, if payment is made, no penalty will ar rue.

In the same Convention, the Committee of Eleven, of which General M. C. Butler was chairman, reported, also, that they had urged "the inability of the people, after "paying the taxes now being collected, to "pay a second tax in November next," and that the Governor said, in reply, that "it "had been represented to him by well-"informed citizens in several parts of the "State that for a large class of citizens, "whose taxes were small in amount, the "month of November was a more convenient "time of payment than any other, and he "hoped that to that class of citizens the col-"lection of the tax at that time would not "prove oppressive;" but, yielding to the representations of the Committee, the Gov-vention that he would authorize the Comp 'troller to suspend the collection of taxes in 'all cases where the payment thereof was inconvenient to the taxpayers-that this postponement should extend to the 1st of March, 1872, and that the penalty for non-payment should not be enforced in

'the meantime." We have recapitulated the circumstances which led to the holding of the Taxpayers' Convention last May, and have reproduced the explicit and deliberate promises of Governor Scott, because we have reason to beieve that it is not intended to give the taxpayers the extension of time upon which they counted. We have before us, for in instance, the Columbia Union of Monday last, containing the following official notice OFFICE TREASURER RICHLAND COUNTY, |

COLUMBIA, October 20, 1871.

The books of the Treasurer of Richland
County will be opened on the 20th day of Norember, 1871, for the receipt of taxes due the State and County for the year 1871.

The penalty of twenty per cent., provided by law, will be added to all taxes remaining unaid on the 15th day of January, 1872. The rate of taxation for the year 1871 is as follows, viz: State tax per centum...... 7 mills County tax per centum 3 milis Poli tax per capita ......$1

C. H. Baldwin, 3 milis

Treasurer Richland County. Mr. Treasurer Baldwin here gives notice that the penalty provided by law will be added to all taxes remaining unpaid on the 15th day of January, 1872; while Governor Scott pledged his honor that the period of payment should be extended to the 1st of March, before which time no penalty should attach. It may be that Mr. Baldwin's notice is a simple compliance with the letter of the tax law, and that Governor Ecott has not forgotten what he promised six months ago But the people are becoming uneasy and suspicious, and it is due to them that they should know the truth that they may be ready for the worst. Governor Scott or his tax officers can, at least, relieve the people from what is a position of painful uncertainty. We hope that this will be done.

The Charleston Election.

[From the Columbia Union.] We have not seen a respectable Republican who has endorsed the scheme lately put on foot in Charleston to defeat the will of the people. It was one of the lamest attempts that ever came to our notice, and we do not wonder that those engaged in it took pains to hurry back home after the matter was decided When a Republican gets so far advanced as to refuse to submit to the decisions of the ballot box, the isooner he goes to some other fold the better. We believe in contesting elections where fraud is known to have been practiced. but the evidence of that fraud must be adduced, or the fraud charged at the time of the election, and not two months after it is over

[From the Columbia Phoenix.] In the case of the Charleston city election, it seems that Judge Graham did not take long to come to a decision. Messrs. Worthington and Hoge seem to have been promptly "squelched." They were snuffed out by the Charles ton lawyers. The array was inspiring. Ex-Speaker Simons, ex-Governor Magrath, J. B. Campbell, Esq., Sandy Brown, Esq., C. H. Simonton, Esq., and others, put in an appearance. Well, Messrs. Worthington and Hoge were found utterly unprepared. They were Thipped on the outer skirmish line. Even if their case had any merits at all, they did not have the chance to suggest them. The history of law cases never before revealed such an easy victory. We congratulate the people of Charleston upon the result, and hope that the good old city will improve under the new municipal government.

A Grand Project,

Professor Maury's work, entitled the "Geography of the Seas," together with its celerated wind and current charts, it will be recollected, worked a revolution in navigation, and his labors have received a world-wide recognition. He now contemplates a kindred work for the land, calculated to be not less beneficial to agriculture than were his wind and current charts to commerce and naviga-1870, the amount to be raised by taxation in tion. But in order to get the materials necessaly to his scheme, Professor Maury conceives it necessary that the General Government should lend a helping hand. He wants the establishment, by international co-operation, of a general and systematic plan of meteorological observation and crop reports, and suggests, in furtherance of this object, a conference of leading meteorologists of all nations, commissioned by their governments, like that which was held at Brussels in 1853, for the purpose of connecting with the plan now proposed the system that was then devised for the sea-of arranging details and providing a general system of observations.

The ladies of the Ursuline Community, S. C., re spectfully announce to their friends, and to the public, that the annual exercises of the Academy will commence September 1st. Their Institute being devited to the education of youth, aucach member having received a long and care in training for that purpose, the schools under their charge, as well in the various countries of Europe as in America, have never tailed to win and retain the confidence of parents and guardians. Nothing will be left undone in imparting to the

Nothing will be left undone in imparting to the pupils confided to their care a thorough clucation, in the highest sense of the word—not alone instructing the intellect, but with maternal care building and training the heart.

The situation of the Convent is all that can be desired for health and beauty. The buildings are on clevated ground, about two miles from the Capital, and in the midst of an oak grove of twenty acres. It is within haif an hour's drive from the depot, where omnibusses and baggage wagons await the arrival of passengers. No distinction of religion will be made in the admission of pupils, nor will any undue influence be used over their religious principles; but, for the maintenance of good order, all will be required to attend the exercises of Divine Worship prescribed for the Academy.

From individuals or societies disposed to aid in From individuals or societies unposed to and in the education of young ladies, applications for the admission of pupils, at reduced terms, will receive the most favorable consideration that the circumstances of the school will admit.

ADDIPH NIMIZ,

LINLEY'S CHEAP GROCERY AND HOUSE-FURNISH-ING STORES, No. 190 AND 388 KING STREET,

Have you seen my eight pound SUGAR? Have you tried the Good Table Butter I sell at 25 cents per pound? Other grocers may endeavor to imitate my Butter prices only to fail most signally. Init be remembered that I am the only grocer in Charleston who obtains Butter direct from the

New York Dairies, thus saving two profits, those of the wholesale and retail jobber. Have you tried my "Fancy Chop" Young Hyson TEA, generally accorded by all Tea Connoisseurs as the best in this market, and sold at the low price of $1 50 per pound?

Have you ever drank a cup of my Dollar Tea ?

If you buy such Tea elsewhere, I'd advise you on the score of economy to try mine, as I guarantee it to be all pure Tea, and not the combination of Tea and foreign mixtures generally sold in this market at that price? It will be worth the time consumed to call and examine the varied stock of

GROCERIES, CROCKERY, FRENCH CHINA, FANCY GOODS, TOYS AND TINWARE, now in Store, by no means my complete Stock, but still well assorted and quite extensive. It affords me great satisfaction to be able to state that, while a few storekeepers make a certain article a so-called specialty, and offer it at low figures, I endeavor to make a specialty of everything in my stock in the matter of quality and chespness, and thus stand a better chance o affording satisfaction generally. A few words to the wise should be sufficient. Most sensible people generally call and see for
